

Cycling Together – ProVelo Guided Tours

20th September 2025

Guided with passion by our volunteers and partners

Guidéiert Vëlostouren fir jiddereen!

Sportlech oder gemittlech, fir klénger a grousser, fir nei Plazen ze entdecken oder nei Saachen ze léieren.

Mellt iech fir 1 (oder 2) guidéiert Touren un.

Mellt iech un:

Formulaire (QR Code oder Link) oder
schreiwt eis e Mail.

Bréng däi Vëlo mat a genéiss den Tour!

Guided bike tours for everyone!

Sporty or relaxed, for young and old,
to discover new places or to learn new things.
Sign up for 1 (or 2) guided tours.

Register via:

Form (QR Code or link) or send us an email.

Bring your bike and enjoy the tour!

Hei klicken fir Umeldung /
Click here to register

|                                                                  | Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Departure |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| (1) Gravel Social Ride with Panaché Vëlo           | Escape the Roads and discover Gravel Heaven with the Panaché-Vëlo Crew.Helmet mandatory.Casual/sporty paceStarting point: GëlleFra / Place de la Constitution+/- 3h                                                                              | 9h30      |
| (2) Mountainbike Tour with YouthHostels Luxembourg | Flowy and Rocky Trails! Join an adventurous Mountainbike Ride around the City of Luxembourg with an experienced mountainbike guide.Mandatory helmetMax. 12 ridersCasual/sporty paceStrating point: GëlleFra / place de la Constitution+/- 4h | 9h30      |
| (3) Road Bike Randonnée                                   | Fast as the wind. Peloton Vibes on our Road Bike Excursion.Mandatory helmet.Casual/sporty paceStarting Point: GëlleFra / Place de la constitution+/- 3h                                                                                          | 9h30      |

|                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |       |
|--------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| (4) Playground-Family-Ride    | Ride with your Kids to the newest playgrounds and parcs in Luxembourg City. (Cloche d'Or and Petrusse). Kids play and parents enjoy a cold drink or coffee. Cargo Bikes and Trailers welcome for the small ones.family friendly-slow ride with play-time at the 2 playgrounds.Starting Point: Gëlle Fra /Place de la Constitution+/- 3 hours | 14h00 |
| (5) Kids-Mudam-MTB-Experience | Learn to master tricky terrain and windy passages while discovering the woods around Mudam. Parents with Kids. Action for everyone. Use the funiculaire for multiple fun downhill rides!Mandatory helmet.Kids accompanied by parent or guardian.Starting point: Gëlle Fra+/- 2h                                                          | 10h00 |

|                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                |
|-------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|
| (6) New Residents Tour | New to Luxembourg? Don't know where to cycle safely and efficiently to get from A to B? Join us to learn how to reach key point of interests by bicycle. Max. 12 cyclists Start point. Gëlle Fra +/- 2 hours                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 10h00 (English) 14h00 (français) |
| (7) Infrastruc-Tour    | We focus together and discuss good (and not so good) cycling infrastructure in the City of Luxembourg while visiting them on our ride. Max. 12 cyclists +/- 2 hours                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 11h30                                   |
| (8) Minett Tour        | C'est à tort que le bassin minier luxembourgeois garde encore aujourd'hui la mauvaise réputation d'une région industrielle, suggérant guère d'y trouver des itinéraires pédestres ou cyclistes, qui défient celles des Ardennes au nord du pays. Zu Unrecht hängt heute noch der luxemburgischen Minettegegend der schlechte Ruf einer Industrieregion an, in der man kaum Rad- und Wanderwege erwartet, welche denen der Ardennen im Norden des Landes ebenbürtig sind. ~65 km Degré de difficulté / Schwierigkeitsgrad: 3 (plusieurs montées plus exigeantes) Sortie de vélo toute la journéeGanztagestour Nombre de participants / Teilnehmerzahl: 10 Point de depart: à confirmer par guideDétails pratiques à l'inscription. Startpunkt und weitere Informationen nach der Einschreibung vom Guide | 8h00                                    |
| (9) CFL Bike & Rail    | Cycle to Wasserbillig over Echternach via the National Cycling Network. Discover beautiful countryside towards the Mullerthal before heading to the Moselle region. Return by train as part of the CFL Bike and Rail Tours. Max. 10 cyclists Slow pace Pic-Nic or food stop on the way. All-day Tour Starting point: Gëlle Fra / Place de la Constitution                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 9h30                                    |

|                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |              |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| (10) PfaffenthalHistory-Tour                                                                          | Einst von oben herabgeschaut, heute bewundert. Eine historische Rundfahrt mit interessanten Geschichten durchs Pfaffenthal und Siechenhaff.Startpunkt: Gëlle Fra / Place de la ConstitutionMax 12. TeilnehmerDeutsch/Lux+/- 2 Stunden                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 14h00 |
| (11) Lampertsbierg: Eng rosegVergangenheet an eng bléiendZukunft                                 | Geschicht, Architektur aVerkëierberouegungen am Quartier. De Lampertsbierg ass haut virun allem e Wunnquartier. Mee dat war net ëmmer esou, De Lampertsbierg hat emol eng weltwäit Bedeutung. Mir ginn d'Spuere vun der Vergaangenheet kucken, gesinn nei Vëlosinfrastrukturen a Plazen déi ee vläicht net esou kennt. Et ass e lichte Vëlostour vun 2,5 Stonn iwwer verkëiersberouegt Stroossen a Vëlosweeër. E riicht sech un interesséiert Vëlosfuierer:innen, déi dëse Quartier gäre (besser) kenne léieren. Startpunkt: Parvis vum Lycée des GarçonsLuxembourgmax. Participants: 12+/- 2.5 StonnenLëtzebuergesch | 14h00 |
| (12) Women on Wheels forChange Ridewith Afrilanthropy and “Ridingthe Rainbow” | The Women on Wheels for Change Ride is a 6–8 km social ride for women, but open to all, celebrating freedom of movement and community. After about one hour of cycling, we'll enjoy drinks and social time together. This special event also marks the 3rd anniversary of the Riding The Rainbow app! Starting Point: Gëlle Fra / Place de la Constitution                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 14h00 |